

A close-up photograph of a bird's nest. The nest is constructed from a dense, intricate weave of dry, light-brown straw and twigs. In the center of the nest, three smooth, vibrant blue eggs are arranged in a triangular pattern. The background is a soft, out-of-focus light color, possibly a wall or sky.

The Garden News Roundup

The Still Growing Gardening Podcast
Hosted by Jennifer Ebeling